

One Bargain Event

SUCCEEDS ANOTHER.

No sooner has the smoke cleared away from the Great Clearance Sale than we plan another bargain campaign—greater, if possible, than the one preceding it. Watch our advertisements from day to day and profit thereby.

DRESS GOODS.

The price reductions here seem almost sensational. We must make room for the new goods, consequently these prices. Priced in four lots, as follows:

VOILES—In champagne and black.
MOHAIR—In red, 38 inches wide.
FLEMERS—In cadet blue and green.
MELROSE—In tan, green, brown, blue and black.
NOVELTIES—In black, 40 and 44 inches wide.

Every one of these sold at 50c to 75c per yard. This sale, 39c.

CASHMERES—In blue, 40 inches wide.
GRANITE—In brown, 38 inches wide.

We must have their room. They go in this sale, per yard, 49c.

CASHMERES—In blue, brown and green.
VOILES—In cadet blue.
VEILINGS—In black.

These are good value at 75c per yard. Yours to choose at 59c.

VOILES—In black, 40 and 44 inches wide.

These are good value at $1.38 per yard. In this sale at only 98c.

SHORT LENGTHS.

Dress Goods and Silks.

All short lengths have been culled from this stock. A good many desirable lengths will be found in this lot. They must be sold. They are displayed on the center counter, ready for your selection, at a saving of 35 to 50 per cent. Here you will find lengths suitable for skirts, waists and children's dresses—lengths that must interest everyone at the price.

The I. O. G. T. held their last quarterly meeting last evening. The gentlemen are ahead on "points" and the ladies will furnish the supper next Tuesday evening. A full membership is looked for.

The East Barre W. C. T. U. joined the Barre union in a picnic at Dewey Park this afternoon. An interesting session was held and the social time over the lunch baskets was most enjoyable.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will meet at the home of Mrs. May Hutchinson on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All interested in their phase of church work are cordially invited.

Mrs. Everett Campbell and children who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Mert Cutler went to Northfield Tuesday, where she will spend a day or two and then return to her home at Hardwick.

The N. E. O. P. had quite an interesting session last Monday evening. Despite the inclement weather a fair number were present. Special arrangements have been made for the next three months by which those who enter the lodge now do so at 83 less expense than usual. It is expected that a number will avail themselves of the golden opportunity.

WESTERVILLE.

Charles Todd left very unexpectedly for Lawrence, Mass., Monday night.

J. W. Moor, representing the Novelty Cutlery Co., goes this morning to Woodbury and Hardwick on a business trip.

As the parties are known who broke into the tool box of Canton Brothers quarry and took away two plug hammers it would be best for them to return the hammers and save cost.

James Geak has the road leading from the highway to his quarry about complete and expects in a few days to have the hoisting machinery to operate the derrick moved from Sodom to his quarry.

A very pleasant reception was held at the home of A. Mayo, Westerville, Friday evening, July 29, the occasion being the birthday of their son, Master Clarence, this being his 12th birthday. About 20 of his little friends were invited, all of whom gladly responded and made the air in that vicinity ring merrily with their joyous voices as they engaged in playing games. All sat down to refreshments which made their joy complete. Master Clarence was the recipient of a great many presents.

BROOKFIELD.

The case of Town of Brookfield vs. C. H. Bigelow, involving Mr. Bigelow's accounts as town treasurer, will be heard at Brookfield the second week in August before Hon. O. M. Barber of Bennington, master in chancery, named as referee. John W. Gordon of Barre and W. B. C. Stikney of Bethel are counsel for Brookfield. H. M. Harvey of Montpelier and Darling & Darling of Chelsea for Mr. Bigelow.

Auction Sale!

Two Cottage Houses,
One Lot of Land.

Will be sold on the premises at public auction on Tuesday, Aug. 9, at 4.30 p.m., two cottage houses on Cottage street belonging to the estate of C. W. Laing. Also a lot of land, 50 by 100 feet, adjoining said houses. Will be sold separately, or to one party, as desired.

J. K. PIRIE, Adm'r.
C. N. BARBER, Auctioneer.

CABOT.

Maldene Walbridge is gaining slowly from an attack of pneumonia.

Cecil Foster recently caught a fish that weighed four pounds.

Misses Flora and Saele Alkie attended summer school at St. Johnsbury last week.

John Lange and wife of Northfield have been visiting his mother, Mrs. Harriet Lange.

Mrs. Carrie Hemington of Barre has been visiting at her father's, Edmund Conant.

B. S. Rogers and family, Charles Rogers and family, have been camping at Caspian Lake in Greensboro.

Albert Lebaron lost his horse last week by its rearing and falling over in such a way as to break its neck.

News was received yesterday afternoon of the death in Plainfield of Lester Abbott, a former Cabot boy and son of Deacon N. K. Abbott.

Blacksmith Arthur Wales rung a wedding bell last Wednesday, calling Miss Grace Kimball to accompany him to Peak's Island on a short wedding trip.

The little five year old boy of George Laird died Monday afternoon. He had been sick with typhoid fever which terminated in an abscess on the brain.

J. M. Southwick and wife took a carriage drive a few days ago over through Munroe, N. H., stopping over night at West Barre with their niece, Mrs. Dudley Blaine.

Lightning struck the barn of Willie Phelps on West hill last Wednesday, burning it to the ground. By extra effort and the aid of the pouring rain the house was saved.

Mrs. Maria Abbott, a resident of the upper village, died last Wednesday morning after a short illness of about one week with erysipelas in the face which centered on the brain. In her childhood she lived at East Cabot until the death of both parents when she moved to Barre and lived several years, returning to this village a little more than a year ago. She was a worthy member of the Congregational church, living an exemplary life. She did not turn a deaf ear to the call of the needy but with willing heart and ample means was ever ready to help in any good cause. The nature of her disease necessitated burial in the afternoon of Wednesday, only a prayer being made at her home. Sunday morning a memorial sermon was preached by Rev. D. L. Hillard in the Congregational church from the text which seemed most applicable to life, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want."

A GAS RANGE

Makes Housekeeping
Easy.

ECONOMICAL—Will do the same amount of work as a coal stove at about ONE-HALF the expense.

EFFICIENT—Its maximum service can be had at any hour, day or night.

CLEANLY—It is free from dust, dirt, smoke and ashes.

COMFORTABLE—Reduces to a minimum the kitchen heat, as consumption of fuel can be immediately stopped when the meal is cooked.

Service will only be extended to the streets where enough orders for gas have been received to warrant laying of the mains, so if you want gas fill out and mail the following order:

To the Gas Company,
P. O. Box 385,
Barre, Vt.

The undersigned agrees to use the gas manufactured by the Peoples' Lighting, Heating and Power Co. for household purposes as soon as said company is prepared to supply its gas upon the following conditions:

First.—That the said company will pipe into the cellar and attach a meter at its own expense.

Second.—That the said company will furnish gas to the undersigned for $1.50 per 1,000 cubic feet, less a discount of 25 cents per 1,000 cubic feet if paid by the 10th of the month following service.
